

Karen Corl Bio

Karen started riding at the age of 6 at a trail ride stable in Fayetteville, Arkansas. She got her first pony at age 11 and her initial riding education came from Jane Dillon's renowned Junior Equitation School in Vienna, Virginia. During her teen years her family moved to Warrenton and she began fox hunting. She has enjoyed various other equestrian activities including hunter shows, eventing, dressage, judged pleasure rides, drill team, parades and soccer on horseback. But her favorite riding activity is pleasure trail riding. She is a member of the Virginia Horse Council, Battlefield Equestrian Society, OPRC Piedmont riding club and Fauquier Equestrian Forum. She and her husband currently own 2 horses which they keep on their small farm in Warrenton.
